

How many times has each movie been rented?

The Histogram clearly shows the frequency of movie rentals for movies grouped in bins of rental counts. The movie and categories with rental counts above 29 have the least rental frequency.

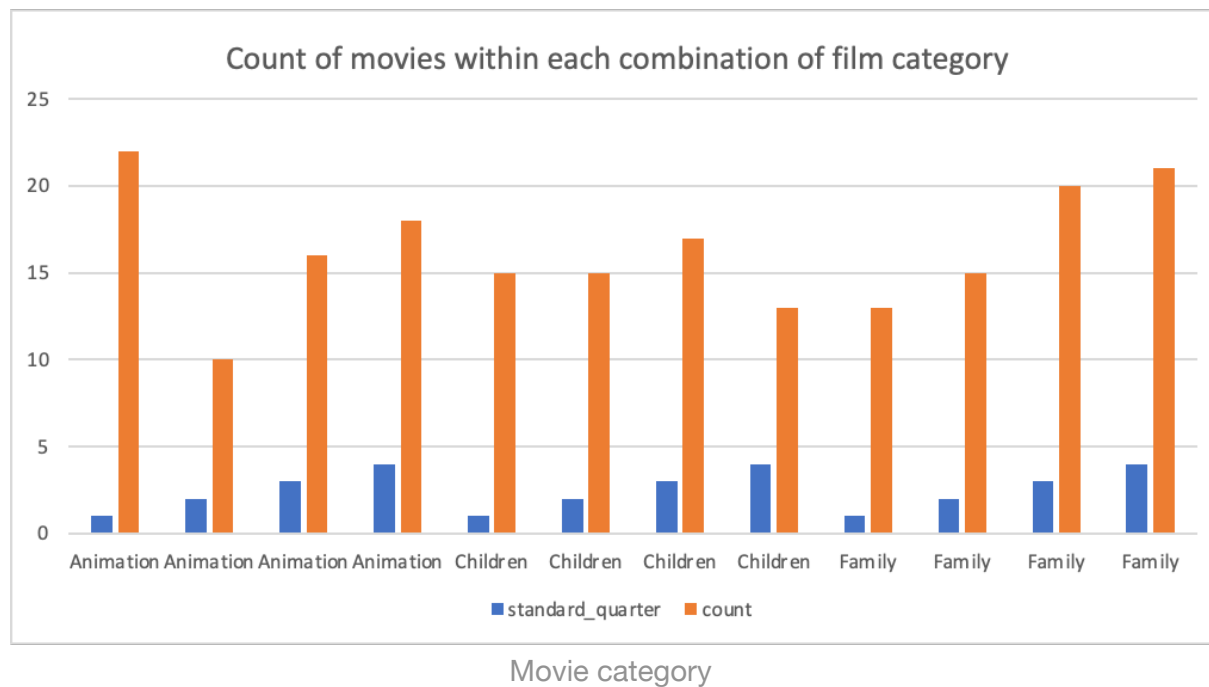

QUERY ONE (1)

What are the average rental durations of movies across all family-friendly movie categories?

The chart represents the average rental durations for each family-friendly movie categories. From the chart we can see the category having slightly equal average rental durations.

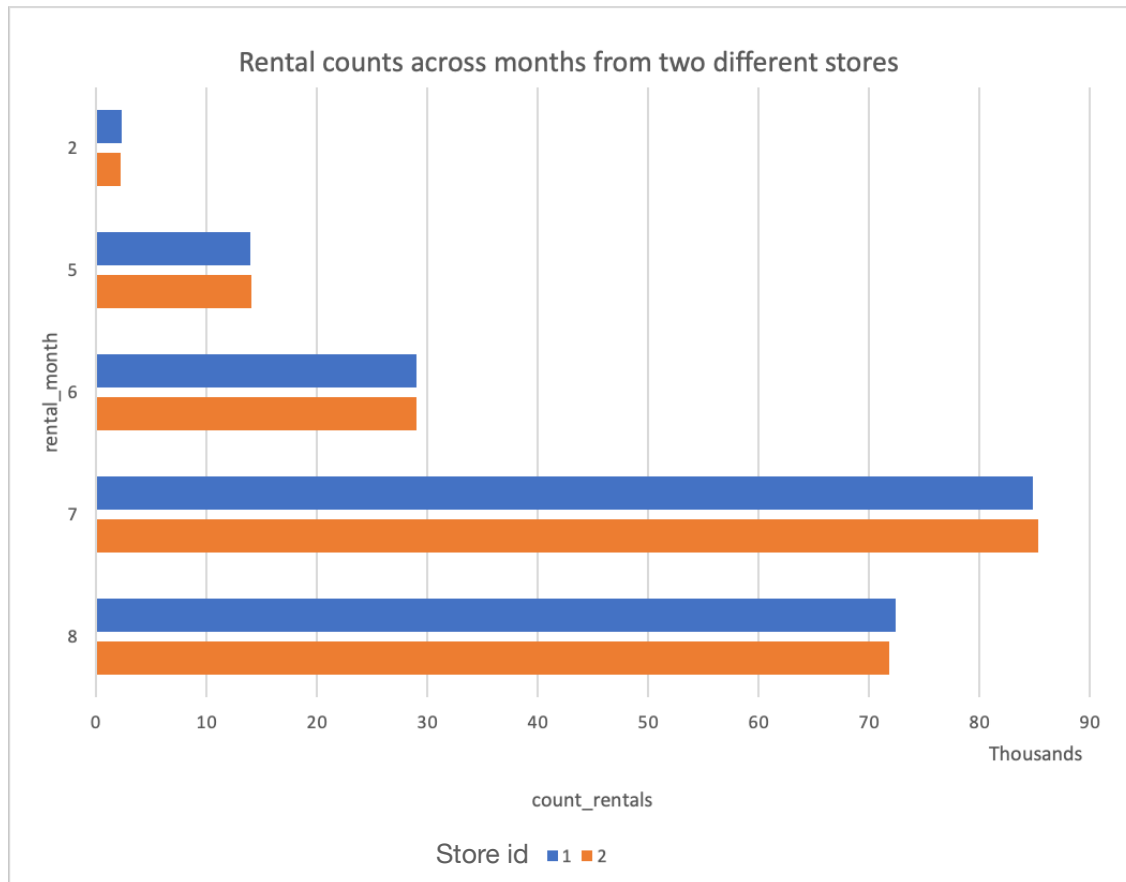

What is the count of movies within each combination of film category for each corresponding rental duration grouped into quartiles?

Movie counts based on combination of family-friendly film category for each corresponding quartile rental duration category.

QUERY THREE (3)

How do the two stores compare in their count of rental orders during every month for all the years we have data for?

Compares the total rental counts for the available months and years from two stores with month seven (7) and eight (8) having noticeable higher rental counts.